

September 24, 2020

Graystone new name for 800 Columbia By JOURNAL STAFF

Daniels Real Estate and Turner Construction broke ground last September on the 31-story, 271-unit condominium tower at 800 Columbia St. Now it has a new name: Graystone.

Daniels says the namesake is the long-demolished Graystone Manor, a First Hill hotel and social club.

Kevin Daniels said in a statement, “It’s important to us that we are building homes of high quality that are affordable for Seattleites.”

LMN Architects designed the tower, which is expected to open in the summer of 2022.

Prices will start below $500,000. The marketing site is now live at thegraystone.com, with Realogics Sotheby’s International Realty as the broker.

There’s a sales office at 1305 Madison St. Sales will officially begin next spring. Reservations can be made now with a refundable $5,000 deposit.

Daniels Real Estate and Turner Construction broke ground last September on the 31-story, 271-unit condominium tower at 800 Columbia St. Now it has a new name: Graystone.

